VVZ-L003-1-T Small cableway with pulley

The small cableway with pulley offers children a dynamic play experience, travelling from one end of the cable track to the other. During the ride, the user sits on a moving seat with their legs suspended in the air, creating an exciting feeling of “flying”. The simple design without a boarding platform provides a smooth ride along the steel cable and adds a distinctive moving play element to the playground. The durable steel structure with a high-quality surface finish and stainless-steel fasteners is designed for long-term outdoor use
